

➤ Battery Day | Terms & Conditions

Registration:

- The registrant must complete the registration form fully and accurately.
- The registration is only considered accepted after the registrant has received a confirmation of receipt from the BCC-NL organization and has paid the invoice provided.
- BCC-NL reserves the right to set a cap on the maximum possible number of participants.
- BCC-NL reserves the right to reject registrations submitted after the stated deadline.
- BCC-NL will consider the registrations in the order in which they are received.
- BCC-NL reserves the right to refuse a registration if it believes there are valid reasons for such. In considering the registrations, the registrant's objectives and the nature of the activity are among the criteria being considered.
- BCC-NL reserves the right to cancel a registration if the registrant fails to provide the information required for proper running of the organisation or fails to do so in time.

Data & privacy:

- All personal data provided by the registrant will be processed by BCC-NL for the purposes of organising the Battery Day correctly.
- By accepting the present participant terms and conditions, the registrant authorises BCC-NL to use their personal data to send them information about their participation and/or any future activities. The registrant can withdraw their consent at any time by sending a written request (letter or email) to that effect to batteryday@batterycompetencecluster.nl
- More information about BCC-NL's privacy policy, please see the following privacy statement: <https://batterycompetencecluster.nl/en/privacy-statement>
- By accepting these terms and conditions, the registrant grants BCC-NL permission to use and/or publish their name, photo, contact details and company profile for (social) media statements related to the activity.

Payments:

- By submitting a registration form, the registrant agrees to pay the activity participation contribution as stated.
- Participations can be cancelled until 3 (three) days after the registration has been submitted. In the event of cancellation by the registrant after the above-mentioned deadline(s), all rights to reimbursement of the invoice already paid for participation costs shall be forfeited.
- Registrant shall pay the participation contribution in full immediately (and no later than 10 workdays) after receipt of the invoice.

Liability:

- BCC-NL reserves the right to cancel the Battery Day if BCC-NL judges there to be sound reasons for such. Possible valid reason include but are not limited to: lack of registrations, the current political, safety or health situation(s), and other kinds of force majeure.
- BCC-NL guarantees that the activity will be organised to the best of its abilities. No further guarantees are provided regarding the organisation of the activity, and the contractual liability of BCC-NL is limited to the fulfilment of this guaranteed obligation.
- Participants take part in the activity at their own risk. BCC-NL and its local partners cannot be held liable for any damage suffered by participants before, during or after their participation in the activity, unless BCC-NL and its local partners can be blamed for intentional acts or omissions or gross negligence.
- Participants indemnify BCC-NL and shall hold BCC-NL harmless against all third-party claims arising or resulting from or related to the activity, unless BCC- NL is liable toward one or more participants.
