

DDS Mateusz Szkliniarz

Graduate of the Medical University of Gdańsk in Poland. Graduated from the Faculty of Medicine, Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry and obtained the title of a dentist in 2007.

Improves his professional skills at numerous courses and trainings. His professional passions are broadly defined microscopic dentistry and modern diagnostic imaging.

Furthermore, DDS Mateusz Szkliniarz is also involved in providing training in dental radiology for dentists and radiology technicians.

Author of articles on radiology in professional journals such as Digital, Medical Tribune, Nowy Gabinet Stomatologiczny and for the Infodent24 portal.

Lecturer and presenter at radiology workshops, particular on CBCT and its use in dentistry at conferences such as: New Horizons of Dental Radiology, PASE, BSSO, 8th International Symposium on Physical Diagnosis and Physiotherapy in Dentistry and Medicine, DaysFORdentists, as well as workshops organised by DEXIS and KaVo Dental Poland.